

Building Stronger Customer Relationships

In the highly competitive environment of today you need to retain and regain the best BPHH customers. Nationally recognized speaker and trainer D.J. Harrington explains the tips and techniques to keep your existing customers and to add new ones. What works and what should you avoid? Your future depends on building strong relationships, not just more transactions. Get the answers during this session and be entertained by this outstanding speaker at the same time!

---