

Legislative | Regulatory Update

There have been several important regulatory developments during the last year involving the Federal Trade Commission (FTC), the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (CFPB) and several state attorney general actions. This panel, consisting of leading attorney/experts, will explain how they impact you. You can't afford to make legal and regulatory mistakes that can cost you millions and you can't afford to miss this session. Knowledge of the issues is your first line of defense! Bring your questions and get the answers!

---